

Business Internet Optimax service from Bell

Secure, high bandwidth fibre optic technology optimized for your business

Subscribe to Business Internet Optimax service and enhance your competitive advantage

1. A complete solution for your business
2. Premium, around-the-clock client service
3. Consistent performance optimized by fibre optics

Business Internet Optimax service from Bell allows your business to:

- Benefit from consistent access speed¹
- Run mission critical applications
- Manage multiple connections to the Internet
- Conduct bandwidth intensive operations

Your organization will also benefit from our premium client service, which includes a 24-hour service level commitment and access to a business Internet helpdesk, 24/7.

Business Internet Optimax service guarantees a consistent access speed

Subscribe to this service and your business will benefit from:

- Consistent fibre optic powered speed for uploading and downloading¹
- Service level agreement with guaranteed 24-hour repair time
- Dedicated performance of your Internet connection, which will not be affected by other users on the network
- On-site installation – expert technicians from Bell ensure it is set up to maximize stability and performance, including your business' inside wiring²
- Unlimited bandwidth usage³
- PC security – first-class protection technology with up to three Business Internet Security licenses from Bell
- Unlimited dial-up access⁴ for roaming within North America; overseas roaming in more than 160 countries
- One static IP address
- Enhanced wireless modem/router (four ports)
- Email Anti-Virus and Anti-Spam software
- Up to five email addresses, with three aliases for the main email account
- Web-based and wireless⁵ access to email
- Toll-free dedicated technical support from our business helpdesk, 24/7

For more information contact your Bell representative or Bell Certified Partner.
bell.ca/optimax

