

Reference of Calls (ROC) Unregulated terms and conditions

General Information.

Bell's Optional Reference of Calls (ROC) service ("Service") is provided to you the customer ("Customer" or "you") by Bell Canada or Bell Aliant ("Bell") in accordance with Bell's Unregulated Terms of Service ("UTOS") found at www.bell.ca/terms, as well as the following additional Terms and Conditions. The UTOS, your invoice for the Service, and these Terms and Conditions are together referred to as the "Agreement". If you are a Customer in Bell Aliant Regional Communications, Limited Partnership ("Bell Aliant") territory, your Service will be provided by Bell Aliant on the terms and conditions set out in this Agreement, in which case references to Bell mean Bell Aliant. These Terms and Conditions take precedence over the UTOS to the extent they conflict with the UTOS.

Description of Service.

Bell offers the Service, both live and/or automated, for telephone numbers associated with all business line local access services, including Bell Direct Inward Dialing numbers, except for the following services or in the following conditions, in which cases the Service is not available:

1. Toll-free service,
2. 900 and 976 services, and
3. Bell Primary Exchange Service business lines for which service has been suspended (temporary discontinuance without termination of Customer's contract for service) at Customer's request.

The Service is available for periods of six (6) months or twelve (12) months. Customer selects term at time it orders the Service ("Term").

Terms and Conditions.

Once selected, the Term may not be changed or extended for any additional periods.

Customer may cancel the Service before the end of the Term, without any refund, credit, adjustment or otherwise for the unused portion of the Term.[]

The Service cannot be used in conjunction with Bell's no-charge Reference of Call service (provided only in cases of Bell Directory errors or omissions or pursuant to a specific Bell initiative) .

The Service is available at Bell's discretion and subject to the availability of sufficient telephone numbers in the switch serving the line on which Service has been requested.

Where a change of a business telephone number results from Customer's request and the Service is not required, Bell may, subject to the availability of facilities and/or telephone numbers, provide Service at no charge for a period of one month. The Service will be provided for Customer's main telephone number only.

When the Service is provided to business line services only, the "referred to" number must be that of another business service (not a residence service).

In the event that the Canadian Numbering Administrator declares a "jeopardy condition" to exist in an area code nearing exhaust, and special numbering resource conservation measures are required, any Service that is, as at that time, already "in-service" or subscribed to prior to such declaration, shall remain in effect for the Term. In the event that the CRTC orders special conservation measures to be implemented, the time period for the Service may be restricted for new customers (e.g., only a 6-month period may be offered and the 12-month period may be temporarily suspended).

Fees.

The fee for Service ("Fees") depends on whether you have chosen a six (6) month period or twelve (12) month period and whether the Service is for a Main Telephone Number / Billing Telephone Number or an additional telephone number, and will be indicated on your invoice.

The Fee is charged for each telephone number.

The "Main Telephone Number" or "Billing Telephone Number" is defined as the telephone number associated with the line under which it and other lines are billed on the same account. The "additional telephone number" is defined as the telephone number associated with another line that is billed on the same account as the Main Telephone Number or Billable Telephone Number.

Service Charges.

In addition to the Fees, Bell may apply service charges ("Service Charges") from time to time, including without limitation in connection with (i) orders, rulings, mandates or directives received from the CRTC; (ii) for work associated with the installation and/or move and rearrangement of service; or (iii) returned or rejected payments, collection efforts and administrative costs. Bell may increase the Service Charges from time to time.

Directory Errors and Omissions.

In the case of errors or omissions in directory white and yellow page standard listings, whether or not the error or omission relates to a telephone number, Bell's sole and entire liability is limited to making a refund or cancelling any charge associated with such listings for the period during which the error or omission occurred.

In the case of errors or omissions in telephone numbers in directory white and yellow page listings, unless central office facilities are unavailable, Bell's sole obligation and liability is to provide the Service, free of charge, until the earlier of termination of your Service, and the distribution of updated directories for that district in which the number or listing is correct.

Bell Initiated Changes in Telephone Numbers and Service Arrangements.

You have no property rights in any telephone numbers assigned to you. Bell may change such numbers, provided it has reasonable grounds for doing so and has given reasonable advance written notice to you, stating the reason for, and anticipated date of, the change. In cases of emergency, oral notice with subsequent written confirmation is sufficient.

Whenever Bell changes your telephone number on its own initiative, it must, unless there are insufficient central office terminations available, provide the Service without charge until the earlier of termination of your Service and the distribution of updated directories for that district showing the new number.
